ATTY. GEN. STEAD SPEAKS IN DIXON TONIGHT AT ARMORY HALL

EDWARDS' BOOK STORE ROBBED LAST NIGHT

THIEVES ENTER REAR WINDOW
AND STEAL GOODS AND MONEY TO VALUE OF $500.

MADE GETAWAY IN AN AUTO

Marks in Alley Give Evidence That Machine Was Used—Work of Professionals.

Lew Edwards' book store, 108 Galena avenue, was burglarized last night, cash and merchandise to the value of about $500 being taken by the thieves, who are believed to have been Chicago professionals and who, it is reasonably certain, escaped in an automobile.

The robbery was discovered by Earl Buck, clerk, when he opened the store this morning. To make change for a morning paper which a patron purchased, he went to the cash register, and discovering it empty, looked into the stamp drawer. Stamps and money were gone, and the young man then started an investigation which revealed the empty fountain pen cases and disordered leather goods.

Open Safe With Combination.
Mr. Edwards was summoned and he tried the safe door at once. It was locked and gave no evidence of having been tampered with, but when it was opened it was learned that the robbers had opened it by working the combination, which fact has led to the belief that they were professionals.

The thieves had rifled the money drawer, taking all the cash but leaving the checks undisturbed; in fact the checks were neatly folded and put back into the money sack. Envelopes containing memoranda were torn open and there was evidence that the fellows had carefully gone over everything in the safe.

Knew Leather Goods.
The case of leather goods—consisting of purses, hand-bags, card cases and music rolls—had been thoroughly rifled and evidence that the thieves knew what they were after is shown by the fact that nothing but the best grade of leather articles was taken, the cheaper ones being left undisturbed. The paper fillings, placed in the purses by the manufacturers to retain their shape, were taken out and left in the show case, probably to facilitate packing the stolen articles.

Ten dozen fountain pens, the average value of which was $2.50 each were taken, the two glass show cases in which the pens were displayed being stripped clean, and a drawer in the wall case, in which the pens were kept, was also rifled. One box of pens had been taken to the rear of the store, where the men had taken the pens out of each individual box, leaving the empty filers and boxes carefully packed in the original package.

Knew the "Dummies."

That the thieves knew what they were after is indicated by the fact that the "dummy" fountain pens in the show window were not touched. No one unfamiliar with the business would know that the pens on display in the window were "dummies," and the authorities place importance on this detail.

Forced Rear Window.

There is evidence that the robbers gained entrance through a rear window, near which the safe stands. The window opens onto the court at the rear of Downing's grocery, and the fellows could work there unobserved. A "jimmy" was used to force the window, marks on the sill indicating this, and the lock was broken. Card cases and the window backs prevent a view of the rear of the store from the street, unless one stands right up to the door, therefore the robbers could work care-free.

Evidence of Automobile.

There is also evidence that the thieves made use of an automobile to get away with their plunder. Early this morning undisputed automobile marks, running straight thru the alley from Galena to Ottawa av-

ABE MARTIN

WAS LAST GAME FOR FAMOUS CUB TEAM

YESTERDAY'S CONTEST AT DIXON MARKS PASSING OF TWO OF THREE CHICAGO STARS.

EVERS NAMED MANAGER TODAY

Tinker, Schulte and Sheckard Will Be on Other Teams Next Season.

Everybody's doin' it,
Doin' it; doin' it.
Everybody's doin' it,
Doin' it; doin' it.

See that great big German over there?

When he hits the ball it sails in the air.

That is Heinie, and he's a bear,
On the square, he's a bear, he's a bear.

(From the musings of Daniel Miller)

When early by the beginning of the second innings of yesterday's game between the Dixon All-Stars and the Chicago Cubs, Herr Honus Zimmerman, Knight of the Mighty Swatstick, and Minister of Batting Average of the National League, leaned his German shoulders against one of Dannie Miller's choicest curves, straightening out said curve and sending the ball ten feet over the trees that line the river bank at Athletic park, he stopped forever any chances Dixon may have had to win that game.

Herr Zimmerman could have run the bases four or five times on that hit if he so desired, but Mr. Tinker, captain of the team, had kindly consented to limiting all bingles to two bases, and accordingly the Knight of the Swatstick stopped at second base and watched Mr. Saier, who is also a believer in lager beer and sauer kraut, do almost likewise; whereupon he came home, scoring the first run of the game, which in the face of Mr. Cheney's and Mr. Reulbach's and Mr. Leifield's pitching was sufficient to the day thereof.

Crangle Makes Good Try.

Hap Crangle, playing center field for the Dixon team, made a desperate try to get Saier's swat, but the hit was too long. Evers rolled to Blake after the above and Saier was thrown out at the plate, but when Archer doubled and Cheney singled in the same inning, the little second baseman, who this morning was appointed manager of the Cubs to succeed Peerless Leader Frank Chance, scoring on the pitcher's single.

The details of the game were fully given in yesterday's issue of the Telegraph, thereby furnishing another item of proof of the Telegraph's up-to-dateness, and therefore there is no need of rehashing them today.

We Saw the Cubs.

But the feature of the game was that we saw the Cubs. And in seeing them we saw a gentlemanly lot of ball players, clever in every particular of the game. Zimmerman, Tinker and Evers kept the crowd happy every minute. They furnished fun in their warming-up practice, and they kept the crowd laughing when they played high and low before the game. Ward Miller and Schulte showed how they stole hits, Archer demonstrated the strength in his mighty right arm, and showed Dixon the snap throw which caused Manager James Callahan of the White Sox to remark that Archer never telegraphs where he is going to throw the ball. Saier also showed us why Chance called him the "first base find of the season."

Last Game for Line-Up.

And a feature of the game which should cause Dixon fans to remember it for many years, is that it is beyond all doubt the last game the famous organization will ever play together. The famous Tinker-Evers combination, acknowledged as the best team that ever operated around the keystone sack, is to be broken, and Sheckard and Schulte, pillars of strength in the outfield, will go. Therefore it was not altogether a

OBITUARY OF MRS. GEO. A. WILL

FORMER DIXON LADY PASSED AWAY AT ITHACA, NEB., MONDAY, OCT. 11.

The following obituary of Mrs. George Will, formerly of this city, is from an Ithaca, Neb., exchange, where the estimable lady died Monday, Oct. 15:

Frances E. Kerr, third daughter of Wm. and Lavina Kerr, was born in Dixon, Ill., Feb. 25, 1851, where she grew to womanhood. She had five sisters, two dying in infancy and none in recent years. Mrs. Ida James of Fenton, Ill., and Mrs. Sadie Sovey of Enid, Oklahoma, are living.

July 1, 1869, she was married to Geo. A. Will in El Paso, Ill. They lived near Dixon about a year; here their first child, a daughter, was born; she lived only a few hours.

In 1870 they started west, stopping in Iowa over winter; the next spring they continued west and located on a homestead in Green prairie.

In 1871 their first son was born, Charles H., and in 1874 their second son, Hillary H. They returned to Illinois where their second daughter, Adah, was born in 1878, near Dixon. In 1880 they returned to Nebraska. In 1884 Adah died with diphtheria.

Their third daughter, Lola M., was born Oct. 16, 1885, a curly headed little girl who has been her mother's comfort.

Last June Mr. and Mrs. Will attended the Dixon Home Coming and met dear old friends.

Mrs. Will's father died at Brookfield, Mo., soon after the war. The mother married Wm. Fry. After his death she came to live with Mrs. W. and died Feb. 7, 1897.

Mrs. Will has been afflicted with Bright's disease; she died Oct. 11, 1912, leaving a devoted husband, two sons and one daughter, two sisters and a host of friends. The funeral was largely attended Monday afternoon in the Cedar Hill church. Elder Huyn, a friend of the family, delivered a grand sermon. The remains were placed in the family lot with her daughter and mother.

MRS. JOHN WOLBER IS DEAD

PASSED AWAY YESTERDAY AT
TERNOON—FUNERAL FRIDAY AFTERNOON.

ADJUSTERS FIX UP CLAIMS AND COMPLEMENT SUPERINTENDENT CLYDE WICHER.

The loss to the county home building caused by last Monday's fire was $289.90, according to the figures of the adjusters, who completed their work yesterday afternoon, the adjustment having been made in remarkably quick time. The loss is apportioned among the different companies as follows:

New York Underwriters, Joe

Petersberger, agent $144.95

Hanover, B. F. Downing, agent 86.97

American Central, J. F. Haley, agent 57.78

$289.90

Complement Superintendent.

The underwriters complimented Superintendent Clyde Wicher most highly for his able manner in dealing with the fire. With the help of two insane patients Mr. Wicher got through a small opening in the gable of the roof and kept the fire under control and finally extinguished it after help reached him. The underwriters stated that had he failed to do this the entire building would certainly have been destroyed.

HENRY DUFFY HAS BAD FALL

SLIPPED OFF ROOF YESTERDAY
AND BADLY INJURED LEFT HIP.

Henry Duffy of Nelson township, well known in this vicinity suffered a painful accident yesterday afternoon while assisting in shingling a house on the Miller farm near his home. Mr. Duffy slipped off the roof, striking on his left hip. At first it was feared the hip had been fractured, but the attending surgeon reports that the indications are that the injury is merely a bad sprain. However, Mr. Duffy suffers considerable pain and it will be some time before he is able to be out.

SEVEN HURT IN COLLISION TODAY

HAMMOND, IND., SCENE OF ACCIDENT THIS MORNING—FOG CAUSED TROUBLE.

WIFE'S STORY IS UNSHAKEN

Father of Frank Robinson Believes Also His Son Committed Suicide.

Hammond, Ind., Oct. 24—Special—Seven persons were seriously injured and several of them will probably die, in a collision between a Pennsylvania passenger train and a Hammond street car at 106th street here this morning. All of the victims were Chicagoans except A. E. Dike of Hammond.

FOG CAUSES ACCIDENTS.

Chicago, Oct. 24—Special—Several accidents here this morning were due to a dense fog which hung over the city during the early hours. A rear end collision of two elevated trains shook up many passengers but fortunately no one was injured; and two trains on the Big Four and Michigan Central railroads crashed into each other at a crossing; no one was injured.

BELIEVES WIFE'S STORY.

Milwaukee, Oct. 24—Special—The efforts of the coroner to discredit the story told by Mrs. Frank Robertson of the death of her husband, son of Amos Robertson, mayor of Sheridan, Ill., concerning the shooting of her husband last Sunday, has so far proved futile and the coroner has adjourned the inquest to give the police an opportunity to prove that the case is other than suicide.

The husband was found slain following his wife's return from an all-night tour of the palm-gardens. Amos Robertson, father of the slain man, says he believes the story told by the wife, who says Robertson committed suicide.

ANOTHER LARGE CROWD AT FAIR

BASEBALL ENTERTAINMENT IS STILL PLEASING—MALE QUARTET TONIGHT.

The largest crowd of the week, one which taxed the capacity of the dance floor at Rosbrook hall, attended the Dixon Stars' Fair last evening and enjoyed every minute of the evening. The presence of the Chicago Cubs added interest to the occasion and all of the booths were well patronized. The music by the Marquette orchestra continues to please and undoubtedly large crowds will characterize the fair the rest of the week. A male quartet will be an additional feature this evening.

PROGRESSIVES HELD A GOOD MEETING

Pawpaw, Oct. 23—Special—One of the most successful political meetings of the present campaign was held here last evening by the progressives, about 300 being present.

Addresses were made by Attorneys John E. Erwin and J. W. Watts of Dixon, Evan L. Read of Rock Falls, and Frank Giffin of Pawpaw, night.

EDITORIAL

A COMPETENT OFFICIAL.

Every real estate owner in Lee county, or in fact everyone who is interested in the business of the circuit court, is, or should be, vitally interested in having the best available man selected to the office of circuit clerk, which is to be filled at the election Nov. 5. There is no office in the county where accuracy and care are more essential or experience is more helpful than in this office.

That there is no man in the county better qualified for the position

CROWDS MEET STEAD AND HIS PARTY TODAY

AUTO TRIP THROUGH COUNTY
BY ATTORNEY GENERAL IS GOOD FOR THE CAUSE.

BIG MEETING HERE THIS EVENING

Republicans Will Meet at Headquarters in Armory Hall—All Are Invited.

Attorney General Wm. H. Stead and his assistant, Attorney Fred H. Hand, accompanied by a number of local republicans, made an automobile trip through the county today, during which they met enthusiastic crowds at all stops and the trip will culminate with a monster meeting at the republican headquarters at Armory hall this evening. It is a big day for republicans of Lee county, and an indication of the success which was to attend the trip was seen at Amboy, where the first stop was made.

Several automobiles were required to carry the party, which included in addition to Attorney General Stead and Attorney Hand: Maj. A. T. Tourillott, County Surveyor L. B. Neighbour, Edmund Jackson, a member of the state board of equalization; W. G. Kent, M. C. Keller, W. W. Phillips, Lee Dysart, Will Harrison, Circuit Clerk W. B. McMahan, States Attorney Harry Edwards and Geo. B. Shaw.

Hand Spoke at Amboy.

Attorney Hand was first speaker at the meeting at Amboy, which city was reached at about 10 a. m. He was introduced by Town Clerk J. E. Lewis, and Mr. Hand made an eloquent address in which he showed the wisdom of supporting the republican ticket from Taft to Neighbour.

At West Brooklyn, Compton, Pawpaw, Steward, Ashton and Franklin Grove good crowds attended the meetings and listened to the speakers, and there is no doubt that good for the cause resulted from the day's trip.

In Dixon Tonight.

The day's campaign in the county will close with a big meeting in the armory this evening, to which everyone is invited. The speakers are eloquent talkers and should address a crowd which will fill the hall. Plenty of chairs will be provided, and there is a welcome for all, regardless of political creed.

Stead's Solid Argument.

Attorney General Stead devoted most of his time today to the presidential situation, and said the real issue is the tariff. He defied any man to show him that tariff for revenue only, as the democrats wish, has not ruined business whenever it has been tried.

Mr. Stead asserted and proved that as it takes 266 electoral votes to choose a president it is utterly impossible to elect Roosevelt, and he said: "Under those conditions a vote for Roosevelt is wasted, and is half a vote for Wilson and his free trade ideas."

Closed Schools.

The party continued to meet with good crowds through the country. At West Brooklyn the democrats treated the speakers with the kindest consideration and assisted all they could to make the meeting a success. At Compton Superintendent Gwynn closed the schools so the children could hear the speakers, and at all the other stops similar attentions were paid the party.

TEACHERS TO GO TO FREEPORT

ATTEND N. L. T. A. TOMORROW—
NO SESSION OF PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

There will be no sessions of the Dixon public schools tomorrow, as practically every teacher in the city has arranged to attend the annual meeting of the Northern Illinois Teachers' Association at Freeport. To accommodate the local pedagogues a special train over the Illinois Central has been arranged for, to leave Dixon at 7:30 a. m. and returning from Freeport tomorrow night.

Social Happenings

BIRTHDAY HOROSCOPES.

October 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6.

Are bold, determined and fearless. Consider yourself equal to anything and go ahead with all the power on. Have much family pride. There are no people like your own brothers and sisters. Love home; worship father and mother. You are fond of gaiety and pleasure. Are a foe to pressure and humbug. Specious argument has no power with you.

October 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12.

You are just, honest shrewd able. Retiring, thoughtful and proud. The secrets and interests of others are safe in your keeping, and see everything that comes your way. Are tenacious, like to advise, and sometimes dictate. Are just and fair and are willing to pay all you owe, and want all you earn. Are conscientious, true and careful in money matters.

S. S. Bridge Club.

The South Side Bridge club will be entertained Friday afternoon by Mrs. R. C. Bovey.

Dancing School.

The adult class in ball room dancing will be held Friday evening in Maccabees hall. The informal will be after the lesson at 9 o'clock. The ladies' class in gymnastic and fancy dancing will be held at 4 o'clock on Saturday afternoon at Rosbrook hall instead of Friday. The other classes will be held Saturday at Rosbrook hall at the usual hour.

9:30 to 10:30 a. m. the girls' gymnastic and fancy dancing class will be held; 10:30 to 11:30 will be the children's class in ball room dancing, ages 4 to 8; from 2 to 3:30 the children's class in ball room will be held, ages 9 to 16.

The dancing school opens this fall under auspicious circumstances and with large attendance in each class.

In Amboy.

Mrs. Ed Fee and Mrs. Fred Lloyd of Chicago and Will Hanson and son Charles are visiting in Amboy at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Harvey.

To Grand Detour Friday.

The young people's society of the Christian church of Grand Detour will serve a 15 cent supper Friday evening, Oct. 25, in the town hall. Supper and ice cream and cake will be served, from 5 o'clock. Come and encourage the young people by your presence.

Root-Youn.

Miss Ernestine Root and Gus L. Young, both of Dixon, were united in marriage Wednesday evening at 8:30 o'clock at the Lutheran parsonage by Rev. F. D. Altman. They were attended by J. L. Root of this city and Miss Marian J. Hannan of Chicago.

The bride was beautifully gowned in lavender silk. She wore a white beaver hat. Miss Hannan was appropriately dressed in a gown of white embroidery.

After the ceremony a choice wedding collation was served at the home of the bride, which was attended only by the immediate relatives of the contracting parties. The tables were beautifully decorated. Both are highly esteemed young people with hosts of friends who wish them every happiness.

A Hallowe'en social will be given in the Baptist church Friday evening by the Tri Me club. Everybody welcome.

Keenan-Oenthal.

This morning at 9:30 at the Catholic church, Wm. Oenthal and Marie Keenan were united in marriage, Father Foley officiating. After a breakfast at the bride's home they left on the 10:14 train for Iowa, to spend a short honeymoon. The bride was becomingly dressed in a blue traveling suit and the groom also wore dark blue. The couple was attended by Florence Hedges, cousin of the bride, and Fred Oenthal, a brother of the groom. They are both young people with hosts of friends who wish them every happiness.

Rebekahs to Meet.

There will be a regular meeting of Minnie Belle Rebekah lodge tomorrow evening at 7:30, at L. O. O. F. hall.

Surprised Mrs. Parkins.

Yesterday afternoon Mrs. Mary Parkins, who resides at the corner of College avenue and Seventh street was delightfully surprised by fifteen neighbors who called to spend the afternoon with her. The surprise was complete and the occasion proved a most delightful one. At six o'clock a scramble supper was served which was greatly enjoyed by all.

Dance Postponed.

The Elks dance to have been held tomorrow evening has been postponed in deference to the baseball fair at Rosbrook hall.

K. B. A. Society.

The Kingdom-Bend Aid society enjoyed a delightful meeting yesterday at the home of Mrs. Charles Breisch of the Kingdom, which was attended by 40. There were three visitors, Mrs. Cora Shrader of Brookings, S. D., being a guest. The day was ideal, the meeting ideal and if one might use the word in that sense the dinner was ideal. Such a dinner as these ladies enjoyed was fit for a king. Comforters were tied and other sewing accomplished and a profitable as well as happy day was enjoyed. The next meeting will be held with Mrs. Geo. Floto in the Kingdom.

At Dinner.

Mrs. Blanche Chapman entertained dinner today at her home in North Dixon.

Executive Committee.

The executive committee of the Rebekah lodge will meet tomorrow evening at 7 o'clock in L. O. O. F. hall.

A FEW POINTERS

on the Northwestern Mutual Life Insurance Company and its new policies.

By Joy O. Hoover

1. The Northwestern Mutual Life Insurance Company of Milwaukee is an old and therefore reliable Company. Began business A. D. 1858.
2. It is a purely mutual company; no stockholders.
3. It is a successful company; a fact shown by its great size. It is the largest purely American company.
4. That it is efficiently managed is shown by the fact that over 30 per cent of its new business is written on its old members who thus demonstrate their satisfaction.
5. It confines its business to the more healthful sections of the United States. No foreign agencies.
6. Conservatively and economically managed as shown by its remarkably low expense rate, equalled by no company doing a relatively large new business.
7. Its membership is of the choicest selection, as is evidenced by its phenomenally low mortality (only 57 per cent. of expected in 1911.)
8. Its securities are all of the highest class and will bear the closest scrutiny (4.98 per cent. interest earned in 1911.)
9. It does not invest in or loan upon stocks of any kind, and never has.
10. It has for many years printed tables of current cash dividends for the information of the public.
11. Dividends paid in 1911, $12,610.32!—an amount exceeding 30 per cent of all premiums collected during the year.
12. Its policy contains the entire contract. Payable immediately upon receipt of due proof of death. Incontestable after one year from date. No warranties.
13. Dividend payable end of first year and at end of each succeeding. Dividends paid on fractional paid-up policies. No forfeiture.
14. Its policies provide for Automatic Extended Insurance; or upon suitable request, automatic Paid-up, or automatic Premium Loans.
15. A table of Guaranteed Cash Loan, Paid-up and Extended Term values is printed in all Life and Endowment policies.
16. Its Life and Endowment Policies contain three (3) Dividend Options, two (2) Paid-up and Endowment Options, three (3) Non-Forfeiture Options, and three (3) Options of Settlement.
17. Its policies contain the "Contingent Beneficiary" privilege enabling the insured or beneficiary to designate a beneficiary in succession, thereby greatly enlarging the scope of the "Installment and Annuity" features.
18. Its policies impose no restrictions whatever as to residence, travel or occupation.
19. It issues the standard Ordinary Life, Limited Payment Life and Endowment forms of insurance.
20. Besides issuing policies to individuals it offers specially prepared policies for Corporations or Partnerships at regular rates.
21. Its books are always open to the inspection of its members.

Roosevelt Eats Big Breakfast After Long Sleep.

Here is a home-made remedy that takes hold of a cough instantly, and will usually cure the most stubborn case in 24 hours. This recipe makes a syrup enough for a whole family. You couldn't buy as much or as good ready-made cough syrup for $2.50.

Mix one pint of granulated sugar with $\frac{1}{2}$ pint of warm water, and stir 2 minutes. Put 21/2 ounces of Pineix (fifty cents' worth) in a pint bottle, and add the Sugar Syrup. This keeps perfectly and has a pleasant taste—children like it. Braces up the appetite and is slightly laxative, which helps end a cough.

You probably know the medical value of pine in treating asthma, bronchitis and other throat troubles, sore lungs, etc. There is nothing better. Pineix is the most valuable concentrated compound of Norway white pine extract, rich in guaiacol and all the natural healing pine elements. Other preparations will not work in this formula.

The prompt results from this inexpensive remedy have made friends for it in thousands of homes in the United States and Canada, which explains why the plan has been imitated often, but never successfully.

A guarantee of absolute satisfaction, or money promptly refunded, goes with this recipe. Your druggist has Pineix, or will get it for you. If not, send to The Pineix Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

Paris, Oct. 24.—Billy Papke of Chicago scored a decisive victory over Georges Carpentier, the French middleweight champion, here, in a bout that lasted 17 rounds. The French champion decided that he had enough at the end of the seventeenth period and refused to continue. The manager of the French champion, however, claims that the match does not decide the championship, because Papke was overweight at three o'clock in the afternoon, while Carpentier was under the limit.

A Showing here that is Notably large and remarkable for Style and Quality

The woman who has decided that $25.00 is price she wants to pay for a New Fall Suit is the woman to whom we wish to talk today.

We are not going to ask her to change her mind. Instead we have anticipated her needs --and prepared to meet them without disappointment.

We have suits at higher price than $25.00 as well as plenty of suits that less money will buy--and they're good values.

The showing is comprehensive enough to afford widest choosing for woman of good taste. Many styles are shown in but one or two suits of a kind.

The newest in novelty fabrics are included, as well as the always popular cheviots, serges, worsteds and other staples in diagonals, pebbles and wide-wale weaver.

Many of these beautiful $25.00 suits are Wooltex with all that Wooltex stands for in authentic style, pure-wool fabrics and careful tailoring.

Mary's Skirt.

Mary had a little skirt,

And it was built so tight

She had to hire a chambermaid

To peel it off at night.

They had to carry her around,

And lean her 'gainst the wall,

Because her skirt so closely fit

She could not walk at all.

She ate her meals off from a shelf,

Because she dared not sit

Down in a chair like other folks

For fear her skirt would split.

FORMER PALMYRA MAN

IS VISITING HERE

Gus Selig of Thornburg, Ia., is here for a short visit with his many friends. Mr. Selig formerly lived in Palmyra, moving to Iowa about five years ago. He is returning to his home from four weeks' visit in New York.

STOLE CANDY.

Some thief stole three boxes of Morse's chocolates from the show case in front of Beier's bakery last evening, the case standing just outside the door.

BRITZ of HEADQUARTERS

"Hush!" she whispered. She and the others watched Britz quietly as his pencil moved slowly, awkwardly over the paper. From his frequent glances at the end of the room that held the big safe, it was evident he was making a drawing of it. The laborious dragging of his pencil point proved he was not accustomed to such work—at least, so it seemed to one of the three who watched him. But the sleuth stuck to the task doggedly, and at last he bore so heavily on a corner of his sketch that the point of his pencil broke.

He laid down the pad, took out a pocket knife, and began to sharpen the pencil. When the point was fashioned to his liking, he looked up. Then and then only did he seem to see the widow and her friends. He arose instantly and bowed to Mrs. Missioner, following that with a short nod to the men behind her.

"I told you man to let me come in madam, because I had no time to spare," said uthle sleuth.

Mrs. Missioner bowed her head in assent.

"You wish to see me?" she inquired. "There is something more you wish to know?"

"Has Miss Holcomb ever told you much about her last year in Smith?" he asked.

Mrs. Missioner's eyebrows arched. "Nothing important enough to remember, Mr. Britz," she said, staring incredulously. The detective had almost finished his drawing. The widow had been watching him with a curious interest, but now she turned her eyes from the drawing to the widow.

"She was not in the mood for discussion of the detective's quest this evening. The afternoon tea in Sherry's, the short ride home, including the turn in the park, with her two most persistent admirers, this cozy home-coming in the dusk of a winter day, however unreasonable the weather, had made her meditative. Even as she spoke to the detective and sank dreamily into a conversation chair beside the fire, her eyes strayed from Sands to Griswold, from Griswold to Sands, with the vague look of a woman trying to decide a momentous question. Griswold, ever ready to seize the smallest advantage, promptly occupied the other end of the chair. Facing the beautiful widow, he ignored both Britz and Sands, and he threw into the glances he showered upon the woman all the caress at his command.

Britz stood by the widow, watching. He gripped his chin with thumb and finger, and seemed studying the big millionaire. As a matter of fact, he was watching Griswold.

His gaze, even as it appeared focused most strongly on Sands, in reality was concentrated on the clubman, who was seated in the chair with the wealthy widow.

"I want a plan of the room," said Britz at length. "A sketch of the safe, too. One of my men was to have made draughts for me, but I had to send him out of town at short notice on another end of the case. So," and he smiled slowly at his poor workmanship, "I'm doing the best I can."

"May I see what you have drawn?" asked Mrs. Missioner pleasantly. "Oh, Mr. Britz," she laughed, holding the paper at arm's length, "I'm afraid you'll never make an artist. I hope," she added hastily, "you have no professional pride on that point?"

"None whatever," returned the detective. He liked a woman with a sense of humor, and there was something about Mrs. Missioner that appealed to him anyway. "I told you I was merely a substitute."

Sands, towering above the widow on the hearth-rug, shot a single, indifferent look at the drawing. Griswold's glance brushed it carelessly, but the widow's interest in it was echoed by him in so far that he took the diagram from her and examined it for a few seconds. Then, with a short, harsh laugh, he half turned to Britz, alternately bending and straightening the paper in his fingers.

"Ever hear of such a thing as perspective, detective?" he asked condescendingly. Britz overlooked the air of superiority. He shook his head thoughtfully. There was inquiry in his eyes as he waited for Griswold's next words. "You'd starve to death in a studio," the clubman continued coolly.

A crisp little laugh from Britz was the only reply. He crossed the floor and made a microscopic examination of the safe. Then he circled the room, tapping the walls again, moving pieces of furniture to look behind them, turning up corners of the rug, and gazing reflectively at the ceiling. All, the Indian servant, appeared noiselessly at the door, started slightly at the sight of the detective, and vanished as silently. Britz pretended not to see the Hindoo, but, in his movements about the room, he paused at the threshold, and glanced quickly down the passage. There was no one in sight.

All that time, Curtis Griswold, having ripped off the sheet on which Britz had drawn the rude diagram, was sketching idly as he talked in an undertone to the widow. His words held her attention. She took no note of the detective's wandering, the heavy silence of Sands, the soundless appearance and disappearance of the Hindoo. Ripples of laughter revealed that she, at least, was amused by what Griswold was saying. It was when Britz, having finished his detailed examination of the room, stopped close beside him that they looked up.

"Guess I'll say 'Good-afternoon,'" and with a bow to Mrs. Missioner and the coolest of nods to the men, he left the room, the widow's "Good-afternoon, Mr. Britz," floating after

Was he mistaken, Britz asked himself as he walked quickly along the passage, or did he see a pair of eyes beneath a towering turban peer at him from the corner of a cross corridor? He made a mental note to have the Hindoo servant watched more closely as, treating Blodgett's lothiness with exasperating indifference, he tripped down the steps of the Missioner mansion, and hurried along a path in the park. Once in the shelter of the shadows, the detective quickened his pace, heading south.

He stopped under the low-hanging bough of a great oak tree to get a better light. As he was about to strike a match, his use of that particular cigar suddenly ceased, for, gripping, clinging, strangling, something soft and silky was drawn tightly about his neck, his elbows were jammed against his sides, his knees were squeezed together so closely he could not take a step, and in another minute he found himself bound, gagged, helpless, with three men sitting on him, bowing rapidly in a cab along the park drive in a direction which, owing to the swirling excitement of the last sixty seconds, he could not ascertain. All he knew was that he was a captive; that he had been seized in a way unusual to city highwaymen, and that for the present a struggle for release would be simply a useless—perhaps worse than useless—expenditure of his strength.

SOME REPUBLICAN FACTS

Business never better.
Wages never higher.
Factories running full time.
Railroads crowded with traffic.
Labor in demand.
Bank deposits increasing.
Everybody busy and hopeful.
Why Change When All's Well?

SOME DEMOCRATIC FACTS

Bread lines a mile long.
Soup houses everywhere.
Banks mostly busted.
Three million men idle.
Ten million children hungry.
Homes plastered with mortgages.
Nobody making any money.
Why Have Hard Times Again?

WILL MAKE A DIFFERENCE.

It is the favorite assertion of democratic orators, repeated in some daily newspapers and agricultural publications that prosperity is the gift of God and that it will not be in any way affected, no matter how the election goes in November.

That was precisely the position taken by the democratic orators and newspapers in 1892. That was the year of most bountiful crops and good prices. Factories were running full force, capital was eagerly seeking investment, labor was fully employed. The republicans who tried to make the people believe that a change of political control would endanger prosperity were met by jeers as they are today, and yet in less than two years there was distress all over the country. Wheat which had been 61 cents per bushel in 1892 was 44 cents a bushel in 1895, oats went down from 28 cents in 1892 to 14 cents in 1895, corn which was 37 cents a bushel in 1892 went down to 16 cents in 1895—all because a democratic administration had enacted a Wilson tariff law.

One of the tariff bills passed by the democratic house of representatives during the past summer places cereals on the free list. If the president had not vetoed this bill, farmers of this country would have been compelled to meet the competition of the great fields of Canada and all other grain producing countries. And not only the farmers but manufacturers will suffer by the menace of democratic free trade legislation. As soon as it is certain that the protective system is to be wiped out, in accordance with the pledge of the democratic platform, producers of manufactured articles will at once cease manufacturing and await the blow which will fall upon them. And then will come the enforced idleness of the workingmen and general distress.

If prosperity was a gift of God, why was God's grace withdrawn from this country from 1893 to 1897? In point of fact it was not withdrawn. The earlier and later rains fell as usual, the soil was just as fertile, the people were just as industrious and the crops were just as bountiful as in the preceding four years and yet the prices of farm products during those four Cleveland years were less by $4,500,000,000 than the same crops would have bought if sold at the prices which prevailed during the preceding Harrison administration. That is to say the penalty which the farmers of America paid for four years of democratic administration was equal to one and one-half times the cost of the civil war.

Bountiful crops are indeed in a very large measure the gift of God, but God does not look after the markets. That is man's business and it is really markets that determine the prosperity of the farmer. The prices which he receives in those markets depend in large measure upon the purchasing power of his customer. Men who are sleeping in the parks and eating at public soup houses do not make profitable customers for the farmer. Democratic victory will mean a change from the protective system under which the country has prospered for 16 years and with a change, if history repeats itself, will come disaster.

It does make a difference who is elected. It is a serious matter for this country whether the republican administration shall continue or whether a democratic administration comes into power.

TREATMENT OF PRISONERS

The recent outbreak among the convicts of the state penitentiary at Jackson, Mich., and the reports of the system of prison management prevailing there have impressed the public with the inhuman customs that still exist in many such institutions.

Descriptions of the barbarous floggings administered to the offending prisoners would make one think we were living in the middle ages instead of the twentieth century. In this prison the so-called "slap-barrel plan" seems to be the favorite method of torture. In this plan the prisoner is stripped and placed face downward on a barrel, and a sheet wet with salt water is placed across his bare back. A water-oaked strap is then applied until he victim feels as though he were being by a thousand hornets.

However, not all prisons are like the one at Jackson, Mich. It is refreshing to know that in many states modern and more humane methods are being adopted, and probably no one has done more to advance these methods than Mrs. Faude Ballington Booth, who is the "Little Mother" to all the prisoners in the country. As she has so wisely pointed out, it is not a sort of sentimental sympathy that is needed. There must be prisons, and those who break the law should be placed in them. But the purpose of imprisonment should not be retribution, but rather to protect society and to reform the prisoner.

In Colorado and in Oregon the prisoners are used to build roads, and instead of flogging and hanging up by the thumbs, every incentive is offered for good behavior, and those that prove that they can not be trusted are kept confined. Under the Oregon plan of "honor men," about two hundred prisoners are out without guard, working in other institutions or in building roads. The system is not only beneficial to the prisoners, but is proving most profitable to the state. Each "honor man," is allowed a part of his earnings, and is thus encouraged to support those who were dependent upon him at the time of his imprisonment.

In our present stage of political evolution where there is such a demand for higher ideals of social justice, and when it is conceded that those planks in the political platforms which declare for human betterment, make the strongest appeal to the people, it would seem that there ought to be a general movement for practical prison reform.

WAS LAST GAME FOR
FAMOUS CUB TEAM

happy day for the Cubs, but the sport is a business with them and they make the best of it.

Praise for Dixon Team.

The team that represented Dixon yesterday is entitled to praise. Being thrown together in a hurry, the men played remarkably well, and had it not been for the excellent pitching by the Cub twirlers, the game might have been more interesting. Fingal, the college boy who caught for Dixon, officiated excellently, and he handled Lange and Miller well for a man who had never had a chance to work with them. Lange umpired a good game, and in fact everything was as peaceful as a sewing society meeting. The book-keeping of the game shows:

No Man is Stronger
Than His Stomach

A strong man is strong all over. No man can be strong who is suffering from weak stomach with its consequent indigestion, or from some other disease of the stomach and its associated organs, which impairs digestion and nutrition. For when the stomach is weak or diseased there is a loss of the nutrition contained in food, which is the source of all physical strength. When a man "doesn't feel just right," when he doesn't sleep well, has an uncomfortable feeling in the stomach after eating, is languid, nervous, irritable and despondent, he is losing the nutrition needed to make strength.

Such a man should use Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition. It enriches the blood, invigorates the liver, strengthens the kidneys, nourishes the nerves, and so GIVES HEALTH AND STRENGTH TO THE WHOLE BODY.

You can't afford to accept a secret nostrum as a substitute for this non-alcoholic medicine of known composition, not even though the urgent desire may thereby make a little bigger profit. Ingredients printed on wrapper.

BAPTIST PRAYER MEETING.

The prayer meeting at the Baptist church last evening was especially interesting. Beside the regular attendants, ten active workers from the Sterling church were present to bring greetings.

Everyone should attend the republican Rally Thursday evening.

THE COMMON LAW.

A fair sized audience, which compensated with enthusiasm for its lack of numbers, witnessed a charming production of The Common Law at the opera house last evening. The cast was exceptionally strong and the great drama was presented in a complete and satisfying manner.

DIXON OPERA HOUSE.

The management has secured an excellently high class vaudeville bill for the last half of the week, starting Friday. Viva Ethelia, operatic vocalist, late soloist with the famous Conway band, and for several years prima donna with the Chicago opera company. Her selection of popular songs will surely make a big hit with Dixonites. Mezim & Desparado, European novelty gymnasts, are an act far above the ordinary, who have just closed a successful engagement with the Circus Royal of Mexico. The above, with three reels of pictures, will make one of the best bills possible.

PRINCESS THEATRE.

On tomorrow night the Princess will show a special two reel film called the Equine Spy, a military subject full of excitement and action.

Everyone should attend the republican Rally Thursday evening.

MORGAN SHARE $13,500,000

Harvester Company Formation Brings Him Stock of That Value.

New York, Oct. 24.—J. P. Morgan & Co. received 165,000 shares of stock for services in connection with the formation of the International Harvester company. This stock August 14, 1912, was valued at $13,500,000. So testified William Hamilton of J. P. Morgan & Co. at a continuation of the government hearings against the International Harvester company. The witness produced a contract agreement dated August 13, 1902, for the deposit of certificates with the Morgan firm by Charles Deering, Cyrus McCormick, Harold F. McCormick, James Deering, Richard F. Howe, W. H. Jones and John J. Glessner.

Varsity line for young men

THE best judges of clothes will tell you that the new Varsity models for young men, in suits and overcoats, are examples of highest point of perfection yet gained in clothes-making; that for distinction, smartness of design and cut, and finish, these garments are the best yet produced.

We think so ourselves; and when you come to see the clothes you'll think so.

You'll find some of the liveliest new models in overcoats among them; the belt feature, which has become so popular with young men, is dealt with in many interesting ways.

Young men in college, or in business, wherever smart style is an asset, will do well to see these Varsity models before buying any clothes.

They're here, the largest stock in this vicinity to choose from.

G. HEILEMAN BREWING CO. La Crosse, Wis.

18th YEAR IN DIXON DR. PRETTYMAN

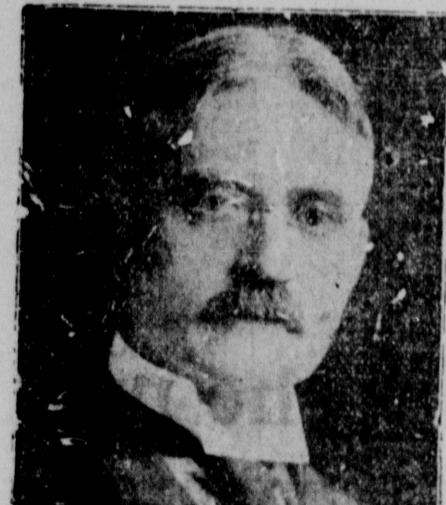

For over 17 years Dr. Prettyman has been coming to Dixon ever four weeks. What he has accomplished in the time is a matter of history suffice it to say it has made him a reputation that no other specialist has ever attained nor can hope to attain in this vicinity.

His Work Speaks for Itself

The doctor keeps abreast of the times by devoting all his spare time to clinical work in the Chicago hospitals. He is not content to rest on laurels already won but he is on the alert for anything and every thing that will assist him in diagnosing and treating many cases that come before him. In 1909 he had special work in hospitals of London and Edinburgh and is enthusiastic over the results attained.

You Can Depend Upon Him

Others can come and go but Dr. Prettyman continues his visits regularly and does as he agrees in every case. In employing him you are assured not only the best results but that he will be here for years to come.

MAGILL IS AMUSED BY FRANK H. FUNK

PROGRESSIVE REPUBLICAN SAYS
FUNK WAS ANYTHING BUT PROGRESSIVE BEFORE HE GOT NOMINATION.

State Senator Hugh S. Magill in a speech at his home city, Princeton, Saturday night made a stinging attack upon Frank H. Funk, the Bull Moose candidate for governor.

"I feel that it is my duty to speak plainly concerning Senator Funk," Senator Magill said. "He is now posing as a progressive or progressives but we in the state senate who were attempting to get some practical legislation last winter were not so sure of Funk's progressiveness.

"As I know his record, he was not there in the pinches when his vote and his influence were needed. He repeatedly was not on the firing line with us in committee and on the floor when he was imperatively needed. On several important roll calls his vote was cast with us only after the necessary number of votes had been cast for the bills.

"It is amusing to see Senator Funk wildly crying for woman suffrage when it is a fact that at Spring field last winter he was one of the senators who refused flatly to support the bill backed by Mrs. Catherine Waugh McCulloch and the suffragists from all over the state which would have extended the franchise to certain statutory offices. He was against that bill and so informed Mrs. McCulloch.

"I remember well the statement of Senator Walter Clyde Jones, the floor leader then of the republicans, which was that he had to fight the opposition of Funk at all times

PAPE'S DIAPESPIN END INDIGESTION

TIME IT! NO SICK SOUR GASSY STOMACH, HEARTBURN, OR DYSPEPSIA, IN FIVE MINUTES

You don't want a slow remedy when your stomach is bad—or an uncertain one—or a harmful one—your stomach is too valuable; you mustn't injure it with drastic drugs.

Pape's Diapespain is noted for its speed in giving relief; its harmlessness; it's certain unfailing action in regulating sick, sour, gassy stomachs.

It's millions of cures in indigestion, dyspepsia, gastritis and other stomach trouble has made it famous the world over.

Keep this perfect stomach doctor in your home—keep it handy—get a large fifty-cent case from any drug store and then if anyone should eat something which doesn't agree with them, if they eat lays like lead, ferments and sours and forms gas; causes headache, dizziness and nausea; eructations of acid and undigested food—remember as soon as Pape's Diapespain comes in contact with the stomach all such distress vanishes. It's promptness, certainty, and ease in overcoming the worst stomach disorders is a revelation to those who try it.

BERLIN WOMEN RIOT

ATTACK BUTCHERS WHO REFUSE TO SELL FOOD.

Police Are Forced to Close Markets In Order to Put an End to Fighting.

Berlin, Oct. 24.—Hundreds of Berlin housewives joined in a wild riot because the butchers in the municipal markets refused to handle meat imported so as to reduce the cost of living.

The principal trouble occurred in the Wedding district, which is entirely inhabited by working people. Hundreds of women, who went to the municipal market hoping to profit by reduced prices, found that the butchers had agreed not to deal in meats imported by the municipality. They then stormed the butchers' stalls, seized all the native-raised meat, trampled it on the ground and fought with the butchers. The police were forced to close the market to stop the riot.

The prices of meats are so high in Berlin that the government recently gave permission to the city authorities to bring in and sell meats from abroad at the city markets and to control the prices. The butchers at first agreed to handle these meats, but afterwards they announced that they had decided on a general boycott on them in the 12 municipal markets of Berlin.

The municipality declares its intention of punishing the butchers by canceling their licenses.

THURSDAY OCTOBER 24 1912

MANY AT RECEPTION FOR CUBS

BALL TOSSERS WERE PLEASANTLY ENTERTAINED AT THE ELKS CLUB LAS NIGHT.

A large number of Dixon men gathered at the Elks club last evening and assisted the members of that lodge in making the Chicago Cubs feel at home. There was a general social time for the visiting ball players, and a smoker followed, after which the ball tossers went to the Dixon Stars' Fans' fair in a body, and enjoyed themselves there until midnight. The Cubs returned to Chicago this morning.

FINE MUSIC SUNDAY EVENING

OFFICERS OF CHURCH ELECTED AND SOCIAL TIME ENJOYED LAST EVENING.

The annual meeting of the congregation of the First Presbyterian church was held in the church parlors last evening and an exceptionally large attendance marked the session. The reports of the various societies of the church showed that the work is in flourishing condition and the members of the church are very enthusiastic over the prospects. The following officers were elected, after which a social hour and refreshments were enjoyed:

Trustees—W. C. Durkes and C. H. Keyes.
Deacons—D. B. Raymond and W. T. Greig.

Rockford Chosen for 1913.

Springfield, Oct. 24—F. Emory Lyon of Chicago was elected president of the Illinois Conference of Charities and Corrections at its closing session here. Other officers chosen are:

First Vice-President—W. E. Simonds, Galesburg.
Second Vice-President—Col. Henry Davis, Springfield.

Secretary—A. L. Bowen, Springfield.

Members of Executive Committee—James Mullenbach, Chicago, chairman; Sherman C. Kingsley, Chicago; Rev. Thomas Finn, Rockford; Logan Hay, Springfield; D. J. Davis, Peoria; W. R. Blackwelder, Joliet; Robert Low, Rockford; Dr. S. E. Munson, Springfield.

The 1913 meeting will be held at Rockford.

SHERIFF'S SALE.

By virtue of an execution and fee bill issued out of the Circuit Court of Lee County, Illinois, on the 29th day of August, A. D. 1912, at the instance of Moses Swarts, plaintiff, and against Francis J. Tilton, defendant, I have this 15th day of October, A. D. 1912, levied on all the right, title, interest and claim of Francis J. Tilton in and to the following described real estate, to-wit:

The Southwest Quarter of Section Number Four (4), in Township Twenty-one (21) North, Range Eight, East of the 4th Principal Meridian in Lee County, Illinois, also all of the West Half of the West Half of the Southeast Quarter of Section Thirty-three in Township Twenty-two, North, Range Eight, East of the 4th P. M. in Lee County, Illinois, lying south of the right-of-way of the S. D. & E. Electric Railway; also the Southeast Quarter of the Northwest Quarter of said Section Thirty-three and all that part of the South Half of the Northeast Quarter of the Northwest Quarter of said Section Thirty-three, lying South of the Public Highway, all in Lee County, Illinois.

And I hereby give notice that by virtue of the power in me vested by the said execution and fee bill, I shall, on Saturday, the 9th day of November, A. D. 1912, at 10 o'clock a. m., offer for sale at the north door of the Court House in Dixon, in said county, the above described real estate to satisfy the said execution and fee bill.

Dated at Dixon, Lee County, Illinois, this 15th day of October, A. D. 1912.

C. P. REID,
Sheriff.
